Writing a story - planning Name:.....

Opening - write about you characters and the setting. Set the mood.

Build up - here write about some events that happen, the characters are going to do something to lead up to the problem.

Dilemma (Problem) - something goes wrong. It could be a mystery, a fight. Is it something terrible, is it a problem?

Resolution - now the problem is sorted out in some way. Everything is made right.

Ending - Think about what has happened. What has been learnt? How have characters changed?
