Point of View Worksheet 12

Directions: determine from which perspective the passage is narrated. If it is third-person, circle each time characters' thoughts or feelings are narrated. Explain your answers in the box.

Viewpoints: first-person, second-person, third-person objective, third-person limited, and third-person omniscient.

1. Third-Person Omniscient
Explanation: That was third-person omniscient because the narrator reveals the internal thoughts and feelings of more than one character (Peanut Butter Wizard, Jelly Girl, and Banana Boy).

2. Second-Person
Explanation: This is second-person because it is narrated from "your" perspective.

3. Third-Person Limited
Explanation: That was third-person limited because the narrator reveals the internal thoughts and feelings of a single character (the Green Fox).

4. First-Person
Explanation: That was first-person because the narrator tells the story first-hand, from the perspective of "I."

5. Third-Person Limited
Explanation: That was third-person limited because the narrator reveals the internal thoughts and feelings of a single character (Bruce Hand).

6. Third-Person Omniscient
Explanation: That was third-person omniscient because the narrator reveals the internal thoughts and feelings of more than one character (Igor, the Red Robber and Johnny the Kid).

7. First-Person
Explanation: That was first-person because the narrator tells the story first-hand, from the perspective of "I."

8. Second-Person
Explanation: This is second-person because it is narrated from "your" perspective.

9. Third-Person Limited
Explanation: That was third-person because the story is narrated through Mary's perspective by an outside voice, one who does not play an active role in the story.
